

I am opposed to deregulation of broadcast ownership. We have already seen decreased quality and service to the public interest due to consolidation. A free society is predicated upon the free exchange of ideas just as a free market is predicated upon that markets openness to new players. Deregulation will only serve to further homogenize the information that we receive through major media outlets. Please, keep current regulations in place.